

International Workshop
"Re-examining the Jawi Tradition in Southeast Asia"

Co-organized by Joint Study Group
"Social Order and Relations in Muslim Populated Southeast Asia"
Center for Integrated Area Studies (CIAS), Kyoto University and
Jawi Study Group, Japan

Sep. 23, 2006

At 3rd Floor, Conference Room CIAS, Kyoto University

Moderator: Omar Farouk (Hiroshima City University)

13:00-13:05

Hiroyuki Yamamoto (Kyoto University)

Introduction of the Joint Study Group

13:05-13:10

Omar Farouk

Introduction of the Workshop

13:10-13:50

Adnan Nawang (Universiti Pendidikan Sultan Idris)

Jawi and the Malays

13:50-13:55

Q & A

13:55-14:35

Kanji Nishio(Oriental Library)

The Development of Jawi Concept: Jawi as Categories of People

14:35-14:40

Q & A

14:40-14:50 Coffee Break

14:50-15:30

Syed Muhammad Dawilah (Universiti Sains Malaysia)

The Role of the Kitab Jawi in the Islamization Process in the Malay Archipelago

15:30-15:35

Q & A

15:35-16:15

Yumi Sugahara (Tenri University)

Local Islamization and Print Culture in the 19-20th Century Java

16:15-16:20

Q & A

16:20-16:30 Coffee Break

16:30-17:10

Dick van Meij (Syarif Hidayatullah State Islamic University)

Islamic Manuscripts and Kitab Kuning in the Pesantren.

17:10-17:15

Q&A

17:15-17:55

Toru Aoyama (Tokyo University of Foreign Studies)

Looking Back on Five Years of Jawi Documents Studies in Japan.

17:55-18:00

Q&A

18:00-18:30

Discussion